

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is outrageous!
Sinclair uses the airwaves free of charge and is obligated to serve
our public interest.
When large companies get involved in this way, it threatens
our freedom and democracy. What kind of example are we setting for the rest of the world.
Where is free speech
-- and equal speech?

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They should not be allowed to operate in this country if they will not abide by our rules.

Thank you.
